

Wath Academy

19 January 2022

Dear Parent / Carer,

Today, the Prime Minister has announced that from tomorrow, Thursday 20 January 2022, face coverings are no longer recommended in classrooms for teachers and students. If students wish to wear masks in lessons they may continue to do so, but this is no longer expected.

From Thursday 27 January 2022, face coverings will no longer be recommended in communal areas either. However, up until this point students and staff should still wear a face covering on corridors and in indoor social spaces, unless exempt.

An updated risk assessment will be uploaded to the website tomorrow.

Yours sincerely

Mr Ransome
